

SUMMER ACADEMY AT LA LOINGTAINE

5 TO 14
AUGUST
2020

La Loingtaine is an 18th century farmhouse on the edge of the Fontainebleau forest.

The La Loingtaine Summer Academy was founded in 2005 and has trained young musicians from around the world, some of whom have returned five or six times. Among them are musicians working in internationally renowned orchestras in France, Belgium, Germany, Italy, Sweden, Norway, Australia, and Japan, including in principal positions. Chamber ensembles have been formed at La Loingtaine and many alumni continue to perform with their academy friends. Former students have been invited to prestigious festivals in Japan, Italy and America, as well as invited to return to La Loingtaine to perform with Academy professors and other distinguished musicians.
